School will keep a copy of these policies and review them in-line with our schedule.

Within the hirer's safeguarding policy, it should confirm who the Designated Safeguard Lead (DSL) is, what training has been undertaken and that the hirer regularly reviews the policy in line with the updates around Keeping Children Safe in Education. If during the period of hire you become aware of any safeguarding or child protection issues, you should follow your safeguarding policy which may involve referring to the police or children's services. Alongside this, you should alert the DSL of the school whose facilities you are letting. This may lead to further investigation by the school in accordance with KCSIE September 2024 and could involve a referral to the LADO. The Designated Safeguarding Lead for the school is Miss E Foster, Mrs J Mannion or Mrs D Gott.

Children of any age should not be left unsupervised at any time as you are responsible for the welfare & safeguarding of all children in your group whilst on site. It is advisable that parents remain on site whilst activities are taking place, where this is not possible the hirer is responsible for their welfare and safeguarding.
